IMPERIALISM CARTOONS

STUDENT MATERIALS

Name: Date:

Picture #1: The Berlin Conference

Who is present in this cartoon—or perhaps a better question is, who is not present? Explain the message of this particular cartoon using the details the cartoonist has included.

Does the artist portray imperialism in a positive or negative light? Explain your reasoning.

What historical event or imperialist practice is this cartoon referencing?

"Cutting of Africa at the Berlin Conference" published in L'Illustration, January 1885.
Image credit. Zoomable Image. More info.

IMPERIALISM CARTOONS

STUDENT MATERIALS

Name: Date:

Picture #2: In the Rubber Coils

Explain the message within this particular cartoon using the details the cartoonist has included in it.

Does the artist portray imperialism in a positive or negative light? Explain your reasoning.

What historical event or imperialist practice is this referencing?

What were the effects of Belgian imperialism?

IN THE RUBBER COILS.

Scene—The Congo "Free" State.

In the Rubber Coils. Scene - The Congo Free State; artist: Linley Sambourne. Published in Punch Magazine 28, November 1906. Image credit. Zoomable Image. More info.

IMPERIALISM CARTOONS

STUDENT MATERIALS

Name: Date:

Picture #3: The Real Trouble Will Come with the "Wake"

Explain the message within this particular cartoon using the details the cartoonist has included in it.

What were the effects on China, as portrayed in the cartoon?

Does the artist portray imperialism in a positive or negative light? Explain your reasoning.

What historical event or imperialist practice is this referencing?

J. Ottman Lithographic Company, Printer, and Udo J Keppler. "The Real Trouble Will Come with the 'Wake'" / J. Ottmann Lith. Co., Puck Bldg., NY [New York: Published by Keppler & Schwarzmann, NY. J. Ottmann Lith. Co.. Puck Bldg.. NY] Photograph. Retrieved from the Library of Congress. Image credit. Zoomable Image. More info.

IMPERIALISM CARTOONS

STUDENT MATERIALS

Name: Date:

Picture #4: Colossus of Rhodes: Cape to Cairo, 1892

Explain the message within this particular cartoon using the details the cartoonist has included in it.

Does the artist portray imperialism in a positive or negative light? Explain your reasoning.

Based on the image or your research, what historical event or imperialist practice is this referencing?

Colossus of Rhodes: Cape to Cairo, 1892. Image credit. More info A. More info B.

IMPERIALISM CARTOONS

STUDENT MATERIALS

Name: Date:

Picture #5: The Sepoy Rebellion

Explain the message within this particular cartoon using the details the cartoonist has included in it.

Explain the Sepoy rebellion and the reaction to this rebellion as detailed in the cartoon.

Does the artist portray imperialism in a positive or negative light?
Explain your reasoning.

What historical event or imperialist practice is this referencing?

The Sepoy Rebellion. Image credit. More info.

IMPERIALISM CARTOONS

STUDENT MATERIALS

Name: Date:

Picture #6: American Imperialism

Explain the message within this particular cartoon using the details the cartoonist has included in it.

How did the US attempt to justify Imperialism?

Does the artist portray imperialism in a positive or negative light?
Explain your reasoning.

What historical event or imperialist practice is this referencing?

American Imperialism. Image credit. More info A. More info B.